COUNTY COLLEGE

MIDDLESEX  IN MOTION

ANNUAL REPORT 2016-17

At every college, there are safety, academic, financial, management, and collegial matters that affect everyone in the campus community and extend to our external partners. For the past 12 years at Middlesex County College, I have been engaged in these issues and I have always led my team to be focused on the students we serve.

We are guided by Mission and Values Statements and our Strategic Plan as approved by the College Board of Trustees. I am happy to report there are many accomplishments and milestones reached in this, the College's 53rd year of service to the community.

You will read in these pages of student, faculty and alumni achievements. Here are some other highlights of note:

- Numerous technology improvements for student learning and services
- Engaged new full-time faculty with specialties to strengthening academic programs
- Expanded workforce development and corporate education programs
- Attuning academic program and degree pathways for the careers of today and tomorrow, including Homeland Security, Culinary Arts, Sustainability Science, and Hospitality Management
- Website improvements to engage the community with lifelong learning opportunities
- Facility improvements including lighting and safety measures, new science laboratories and a one-stop enrollment services building.
- Our enrollment shows we serve the population of our county: 33% Hispanic, 29% white, 15% Asian, 12% black, 21% two or more races or other
- The lowest tuition of any college in mid-Jersey while maintaining fiscal strength

I thank you and look forward to working with you in support of the students we serve.

Joann La Perla-Morales

MISSION

The mission of Middlesex County College is to provide access to a quality, affordable education for a diverse population, to support student success for lifelong learning, and to strengthen the economic, social and cultural life of the community.

VALUES STATEMENT

- Excellence: MCC values a rigorous and supportive learning environment.
- Integrity: MCC prides itself on fostering an honest and respectful institutional culture.
- Diversity: MCC respects and celebrates acceptance and understanding.
- Collaboration: MCC promotes a culture of cooperation and engagement.
- Transparency: MCC embraces authentic and transparent communication.
- Civility: MCC fosters mutual respect and collegiality.

STUDENTS

- 1509 degrees and certificates were awarded to 1476 students by Middlesex County College in May at the 50th annual Commencement ceremony. Six students were awarded the Frank M. Chambers Award for those with a 4.0 GPA.
- Eleven students were honored for their induction into Alpha Mu Gamma, the national honor society for foreign language study.
- 356 students were inducted into the College chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, the international honor society for two-year colleges.
- Rachel Mahoney, who graduated in May and transferred to Rutgers University, received a $3,000 scholarship from the New Jersey Water Environment Association at its annual conference in Atlantic City. The scholarship committee lauded her work examining water samples in the Elizabeth Marina to check bacteria levels and determine if they have become resistant to antibiotics.
- Julissa Gesumaria was selected to participate in the Governor's STEM Scholars research project, a program to encourage high school and college students to go into STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) careers. Ms. Gesumaria, a Biology major, is conducting research on the effects of specific physical activities on brainwaves and cognitive performance. She plans to go into the field of neurology.

- Star basketball player Zikyara Hicks was presented the Vincent DeSario award by Athletic Director Bob Wisniewski at the Athletic Banquet in May. The award, named for the late MCC golfer, is presented to a sophomore student-athlete each year for athletic and academic accomplishments.
- Danielle Caruso, the recipient of a NASA Space Grant Fellowship award, was selected as the student speaker at the Mid-Atlantic Space Grant Directors meeting at Johns Hopkins University's Mount Washington Conference Center in Baltimore. Her presentation was titled "A Look at TLR4 and MyD88 in Glioblastoma Using Immunohistochemistry."

ALUMNI

- Robert Murdock, a 1979 graduate, was named MCC's Alumnus of the Year for Contributions to the College, its Alumni Association or its Foundation.
- An art exhibition by Richmond Garrick '96 opened with a reception, in which he shared his story and his vision with the capacity crowd. The artist, a native of Sierra Leone, displayed his work that included vivid scenes of his native land, including during its civil war, as well as 13 portraits of noted black luminaries. Mr. Garrick donated the portraits to the College; they are permanently displayed in West Hall.

FACULTY
& STAFF

- Steve Larkin, chair of Medical Lab Technology, received the Outstanding Educator of the Year award from the American Society of Clinical Laboratory Science – New Jersey at its annual spring seminar.
- Brian Clemmons, dean of enrollment management, and Linda Scherr, dean of Arts & Sciences, received honorary memberships into Phi Theta Kappa, the honor society for two-year colleges.
- A paper written by Professor Susan Altman, of the Visual, Performing and Media Arts Department, was accepted into the Art Museums and Foundation Studies at the 2017 Foundations in Art Theory and Education (FATE) Conference in Kansas City. The paper, "Gallery Adventures: Going, Seeing, Thinking and Doing," discusses the relevance of MCC Art Department's field tips to Chelsea and museums to support student learning within an art foundations program.
- English Professor Mat Spano '88 spoke and read from his new book, "Hellgrammite," at a program organized by the College Library. Dr. Spano donated proceeds from the book to two MCC scholarships.
- Professor Louis Dell'Omo of the Visual, Performing and Media Arts Department spent his third summer broadcasting live on the boardwalk in Asbury Park for 94.3 The Point (WJLK-FM) a Townsquare Media station in partnership with New Jersey Natural Gas and the Asbury Park Chamber of Commerce. He conducted interviews and promoted festivals and other community events. The season concluded Labor Day Weekend with an exclusive interview with Danny DeVito.
- Three outstanding professors at MCC were honored: Shirley Wachtel, professor of English, was selected as the 2017 Faculty Scholar; Kathy Shay, of the Mathematics Department, received the 2017 Excellence in Teaching Award; and Sara Blomquist, of the English Department, received the 2017 Excellence in Teaching Part Time Award.

PROGRAMS & SERVICES

- Two new buildings opened: South Hall, a two-story, 36,000-square-foot facility for general biology, chemistry, organic chemistry, genetics, microbiology and general science; and West Hall, which houses Admissions, Academic Advising, Career Services, Financial Aid, Registration, Student Account Services, Veterans Services, and the deans of Enrollment Management and Student Affairs.
- MCC and Felician University signed an agreement that will allow MCC business students to complete their Bachelor of Science degree in Business, and, if they choose, a Master of Business Administration from Felician. The Bachelor's-level and graduate classes will be held on the Middlesex campus.
- Once again, MCC has been named as one of the most veteran-friendly colleges in the United States, receiving recognition for its service to student-veterans, according to lists developed by three media companies: Military Times, Military Advanced Education, and Victory Media. This is the third year MCC has been named to the Military Times' list, the fourth time for Military Advanced Education, and the fifth year for Victory Media.
- MCC recognized the Roosevelt Care Center of Edison for its support of the College's Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) Program. The program, approved by the New Jersey Department of Health, is conducted at Roosevelt Care Center's Barbara E. Cheung facility. CNA students study patient care and hygiene, anatomy and physiology, and patient safety and nutrition.
- Pulitzer Prize-winning author Junot Díaz spoke to the College community as part of Hispanic Heritage Month.

- MCC honored those killed on 9-11, as well as first responders, military veterans and service members on the 15th anniversary of the tragedy. The program included raising of the flag, assisted by the Middlesex County Sheriff's Department Honor Guard, as well as speeches from MCC student-veterans.
- Holocaust survivor Eva Wiener spoke in a program sponsored by the Holocaust and Human Rights Center. She was a passenger on the St. Louis, which left Europe in 1939 attempting to flee Nazi Europe. Denied entry by multiple countries, the ship was forced to return to Europe where hundreds of passengers were eventually killed in the Holocaust.

- Jed Baker, director of the Social Skills Training Project, an organization serving individuals with autism and social communication problems, spoke at Disability Awareness Day in October. He is the author of eight books, including "Preparing for Life: The Complete Handbook for the Transition to Adulthood for Those with Autism and Asperger's Syndrome" and "Overcoming Anxiety in Children and Teens." Dr. Baker writes, lectures and provides training on the topic of social skills and managing challenging behaviors.

COMMUNITY

- James Monroe Elementary School cut the ribbon to officially open its brand-new building. In 2014, fire destroyed the school, and for several months, the students used space in the old South 1 and 2 buildings at MCC. College President Joann La Perla-Morales was one of several people honored at the ceremony by Edison Superintendent Richard O'Malley.
- "Pink Night," a program in which the Middlesex County College and Brookdale Community College basketball teams supported cancer research, was held at Middlesex in February. The men's and women's teams from both schools wore special warm-up t-shirts and members of the MCC women's team organized a bake sale and collected donations for a cancer charity.
- MCC and East Brunswick Public Schools signed an agreement officially launching the MCC/East Brunswick High School College Pathways program. This initiative provides East Brunswick High School students the opportunity to earn an Associate Degree by taking college courses while still in high school. At present, more than 450 East Brunswick High School students have registered for 40 classes. Courses include mathematics, English, public speaking, accounting, computer science, natural sciences, history, political science, psychology and world languages.
- Every second grader in the Edison public schools visited the campus as part of Discover Edison, a program to familiarize the children with their hometown and to start them thinking about going to college.
- Thirteen 3-to 5-year-olds from Acelero Learning of Monmouth /Middlesex Counties visited the MCC Dental Hygiene Clinic. Senior dental hygiene students, faculty and the clinic dentist welcomed the children. The kids received a dental screening, toothbrush education, a teeth cleaning and fluoride varnish application.

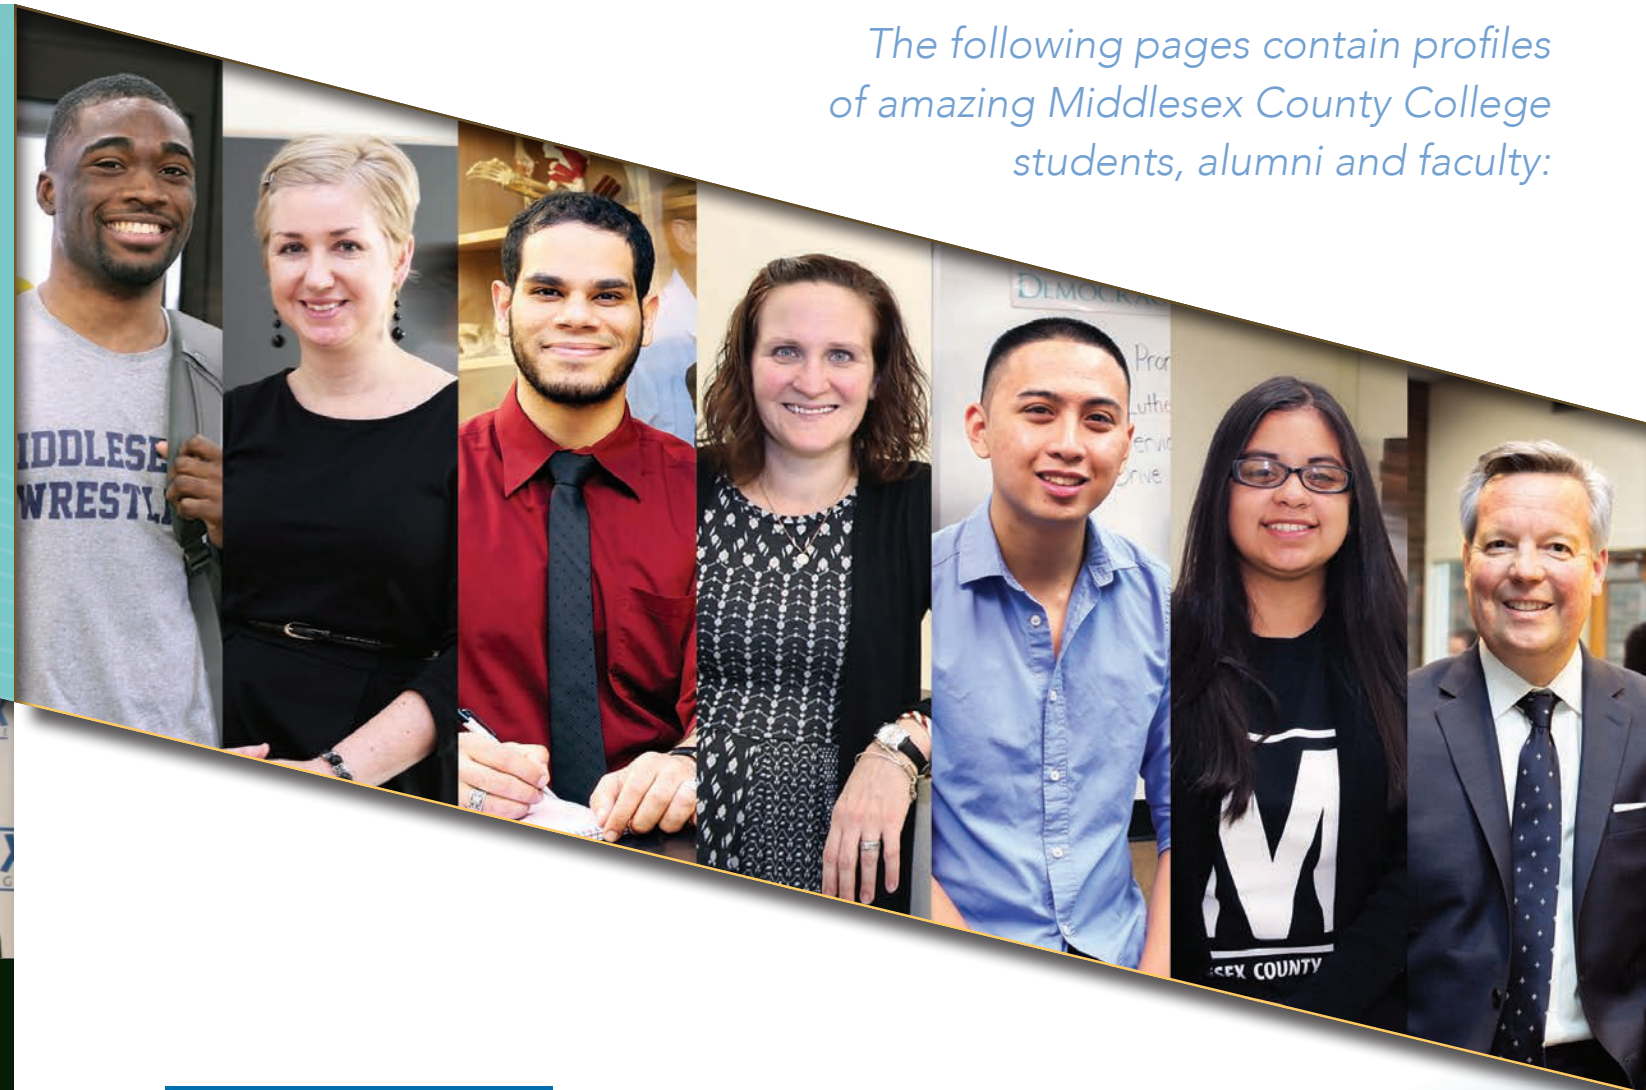

FOUNDATION

- The Middlesex County College Foundation provided $737,000 to the College to award 590 student scholarships. At a fall Scholarship Reception, donors met with student awardees to learn about their studies and educational and career plans, and the recipients were able to personally thank the donors. In addition, the Foundation provided $369,024 to the College for program support.
- The Willard T.C. Johnson Foundation renewed its funding for three years to support the MCC Veterans Services Center.

- The MCC Foundation received its first naming commitment – the South Hall Lobby for James J. Mikusi, Jr.
- The sixth Annual Casino Night was another sell-out, with proceeds going to support College programs and student scholarships.

6th Annual
Casino Night
 Friday, February 24, 2017

More than 220 guests enjoyed an evening of make-believe gambling, roulette, craps, blackjack and poker at Casino Night in February, helping to raise net proceeds of over $35,000 to support the mission of the MCC Foundation.

Casino Hosts: Investors Foundation, Paige and Elizabeth L'Hommedieu, The Provident Bank Foundation, and Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital.

Meet Devin Jefferson

"I loved meeting individuals with similar interests and talents. I enjoyed every moment on the wrestling team and sharing with people my gift of rap. I plan to continue showing my love for it in the future."

Devin Jefferson Fast Facts

- A.S., Middlesex County College, 2018; B.S., Kean University, 2020
- Planning a career in the music industry.
- Member of the wrestling team, the Gospel Choir, leader of the Educational Opportunity Club, a presenter for the Student Life Department, and a founder of the Production Club, which helps musicians develop their skills and enhance their performances.

Meet Melissa Luis

"Most people can identify an educator who was a salient influence in their life and helped them to become who they are today.

My goal is to instill the value and importance of the teaching profession into my courses and into the work I do with education students."

Melissa Luis Fast Facts

- M.S.Ed., Ph.D., Fordham University
- Teaches education and psychology courses at MCC.
- Advisor to Kappa Delta Pi, the education honor society, which recognizes and supports excellent future teachers and creates professional development opportunities for them. It also runs Literacy Alive!, an annual program that encourages children to read. Working as the Education Degree Program Coordinator, Dr. Luis has implemented a "Common Assignment" in all education coursework to ensure that students develop skills toward becoming an effective educator.

Meet Ahmed Anwar

"The education I received at MCC was phenomenal.

I transferred to Rutgers for the rest of my undergraduate education and was thankfully always ahead of my peers because of the solid foundation MCC had given me.

I do not know my destination, but I do know that because of this great institution, my adventure is going to be grand."

Ahmed Anwar Fast Facts

- A.S., Middlesex County College, 2014; B.S. Rutgers University, 2016; Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine, Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine, 2020.
- Plans to become an Emergency Room Physician.
- Graduated Summa Cum Laude from Rutgers with Academic Excellence in Microbiology

Meet Crystal Quillen

"I like teaching because I enjoy sharing my passion about my field. Psychology had always fascinated me. It started when I was in high school, and it still does to this day.

If I can get my students as half as passionate as I am about psychology in the classroom, then I know I've done my job."

Crystal Quillen Fast Facts

- B.S., Lebanon Valley College; M.A., Ph.D., Kent State University
- Teaches psychology courses at MCC.
- Streamlined the psychology curriculum so students can easily follow a semester-by-semester path to earning their degree and transferring to a four-year school.

Meet Luke Agojo

"While it's important to be a good student, strive to involve yourself in some extracurriculars. Join a club or two, maybe even start your own!

Put yourself out there and stand out from the crowd. It's okay to be different!"

Luke Agojo Fast Facts

- A.A., Middlesex County College, 2018; B.S.W., Rutgers University, 2020, M.A., 2022
- President, Student Government Association; President, Democracy House; Vice President, Phi Theta Kappa; member, College Assembly.
- Air Force veteran. After graduation, plans to transfer to Rutgers University and major in social work. Career plans include higher education administration.

Meet Jenifer Olvera

"I've gotten involved in many activities at MCC because it benefits me and it benefits the College.

I've learned leadership skills and I think it helps the College to hear student perspectives when making plans."

Jenifer Olvera Fast Facts

- A.A., Middlesex County College; B.A., Rutgers University, 2020
- Planning a career in Information technology and Informatics.
- Secretary of Democracy House, the College's service learning program; treasurer of the Russian Club; student representative to the College's IT Advisory Group; member of the Curriculum Task Force of the College Assembly.

Meet Jim Campbell

"I am very grateful to Middlesex County College for my education, and I am a very proud alumnus.

The College was important to me. It opened the door to the rest of my education, and the wonderful life that I have because of it."

Jim Campbell Fast Facts

- A.S., Middlesex County College, 1984; Doctor of Chiropractic Degree, Palmer College of Chiropractic, 1988.
- Has operated his own practice in East Brunswick for 28 years.
- Earned a Diplomate in Chiropractic Acupuncture, the profession's highest degree in the ancient healing art and served as the president of The American Board of Chiropractic Acupuncture.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY COLLEGE FINANCES

Middlesex County College's total operating budget for Fiscal Year 2016-2017 was $78,051,662.

FY17 Operating Revenue

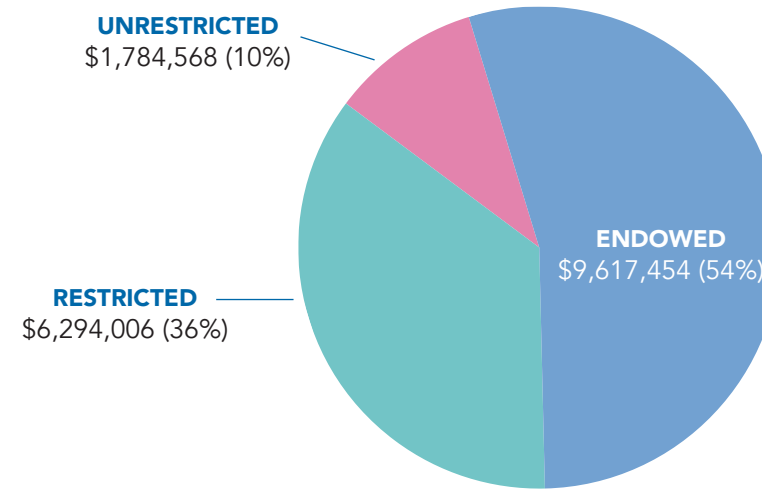

The College continues to operate in a healthy fiscal position. County and State funding were level. A small tuition increase of $2 per credit hour was necessary.

FY17 Expenditure

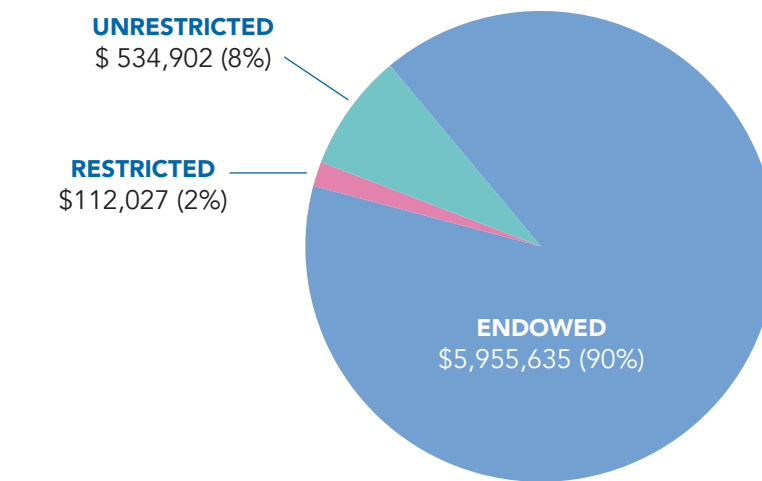

More than 60 percent of expenses are related to student learning and leadership programs. This fulfills the College mission of providing access to quality, affordable education for a diverse population that strengthens the economic, social and cultural life of the community when students graduate.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY COLLEGE FOUNDATION INC.

FY17 Net Assets $17,696,028

The bulk of MCC Foundation's assets are in the form of endowed funds generating support for scholarships and academic and student programs in perpetuity. In addition, our assets include restricted and unrestricted funds for distribution in the current or future fiscal years. In 2016, the MCC Foundation received $5 million from MCC Retail Services Corporation. MCC Retail Services Corporation, a 501(c)(3) affiliated with Middlesex County College, ceased to operate in 2016.

FY17 Revenue $6,602,565

Endowed income includes new contributions to MCCF's $9 million endowment, together with revenue the fund generates. Restricted income is contributions from individuals, corporations and foundations designated for a specific purpose. Unrestricted income is general contributions to the Annual Fund and special events, and also includes interest and realized gains from investments. In 2016, the MCC Foundation received $5 million from MCC Retail Services Corporation. These funds are part of the $5.9 million restricted income for 2016-17.

FY17 Expenditure $1,295,557

More than 590 scholarship awards totaling $736,927 were made this year. In addition, $369,924 was provided to MCC for academic programs and student services.

PLEASE HELP US HELP OUR STUDENTS!

Your donation to the Annual Fund helps the MCC Foundation provide scholarship awards for a wide variety of students. Annual fund donations—large and small—become part of the general unrestricted fund and make it possible for us to help many deserving students.

Please use the envelope included in this publication, make a gift online at www.mcc-foundation.org or call 732.906.2564. THANK YOU!
