

2023

AWE-INSPIRING PLACES IN MIDDLESEX COUNTY

IMAN IQBAL & NEZ MENDEZ

New Jersey's Middlesex County is home to numerous magnificent locations. "The Mannequin House," which is situated in North Brunswick, is one of them. As people of all ages pass by this house packed with more than 60 mannequins, their eyes are drawn to it, sparking curiosity in those who take a closer look. Iman Iqbal and Nez Mendez, conducted research on the residence to respond to your inquiries regarding the residence and its owner.

---

Exterior view of the house

Some mannequins up close

This house has been attracting interest for a long time. Nobody, however, was aware of the artist's motivation for putting quite a few of mannequins in his yard. Mr. Michael Calantoni is the artist responsible for the mannequin creation. During our interview with Mr. Calantoni, he went into great detail regarding the mannequins, how they came to be, as well as his other artistic endeavors and personal life.

---

The Artist “Michael Calantoni”

↓ A candid shot of him while looking at the mannequins

^Posing with his first ever assembled mannequin named “Bruce.”

The Artist

The artist Mr. Calantoni is really gifted. He has been creating various works of art since he was a young. His use of simple materials rather than elaborate ones is an intriguing aspect of his artwork. He constructed the mannequins using tubes and bottles!

---

More of Mr Calantoni's artwork

